HEADLINERS

The Black Rock Funk Allstars featuring members of Deep Banana Blackout. Driven by a rhythm section of the kings, signature hammond and fender rhodes dueling keyboards, lead saxophone and vocals round out the signature sound.

Residual Groove is a five-piece funk/fusion band from Norwalk, CT. With a healthy mix of groovy originals and surprising covers, Residual Groove joins their influences and creations together through tasteful segues and spontaneously improvised segments.

OPENING

Brian Charette's Mighty Grinders, together since 2015 they combine a unique blend of New Orleans funk, modern Jazz, and contemporary classical music to form a greasy organ grinder swing with high minded sensibilities.
